

TECHNICAL NOTES

WINE NAME Plexus Rosé Frisante

WINERY Adega Cooperativa do Cartaxo

STORY Founded in 1954, the Adega Cooperativa do Cartaxo has solid roots in the heart of the Tejo region where wine production has existed since the 10th century. The winery has a strong network of multi-generation family growers with vineyard holdings of nearly 2000 acres and with an annual production of 7 million liters. Genuine, authentic and sophisticated, the wines of Adega do Cartaxo meet the ambitions for which they were created: a high degree of quality coupled with the recognition from wine lovers who value the relation between the price and quality.

TERROIR Bairro

SOIL Clay-calcareous

APPELLATION VR Tejo

WINE TYPE Sparkling Wine

GRAPE VARIETIES Castelão, Aragonês

TASTING NOTES Intense aroma of red fruit, strawberry, raspberry and cherry, with a sweet floral note. Slightly off-dry, this wine finishes fresh, fruity, and delicate.

FOOD PAIRING Perfect for any occasion, especially as an aperitif or with light fish or shellfish dishes. It should be consumed at 7-10°C.

PRODUCTION 650,000 bottles

WEBSITE www.adegacartaxo.pt